

I was angered to hear that after I have spent quite a bit of money for xm radio, and enjoy it, that the NAB now want's to take a service away from me that I have already paid for. I prefer the quality of information I recieve on xm as opposed to standard radio and traffic reports. I feel that I should have a choice to choose what I want to listen to. Isn't that the American way? Thanks for your time.

Kimberly Racicik